

VIRTUAL BOOK LAUNCH

"Team Teachers in Japan"

Edited by Takaaki Hiratsuka

Date: 29 July 2023, Saturday

Time: 6:30pm - 8:30 pm (JST)

Programme:

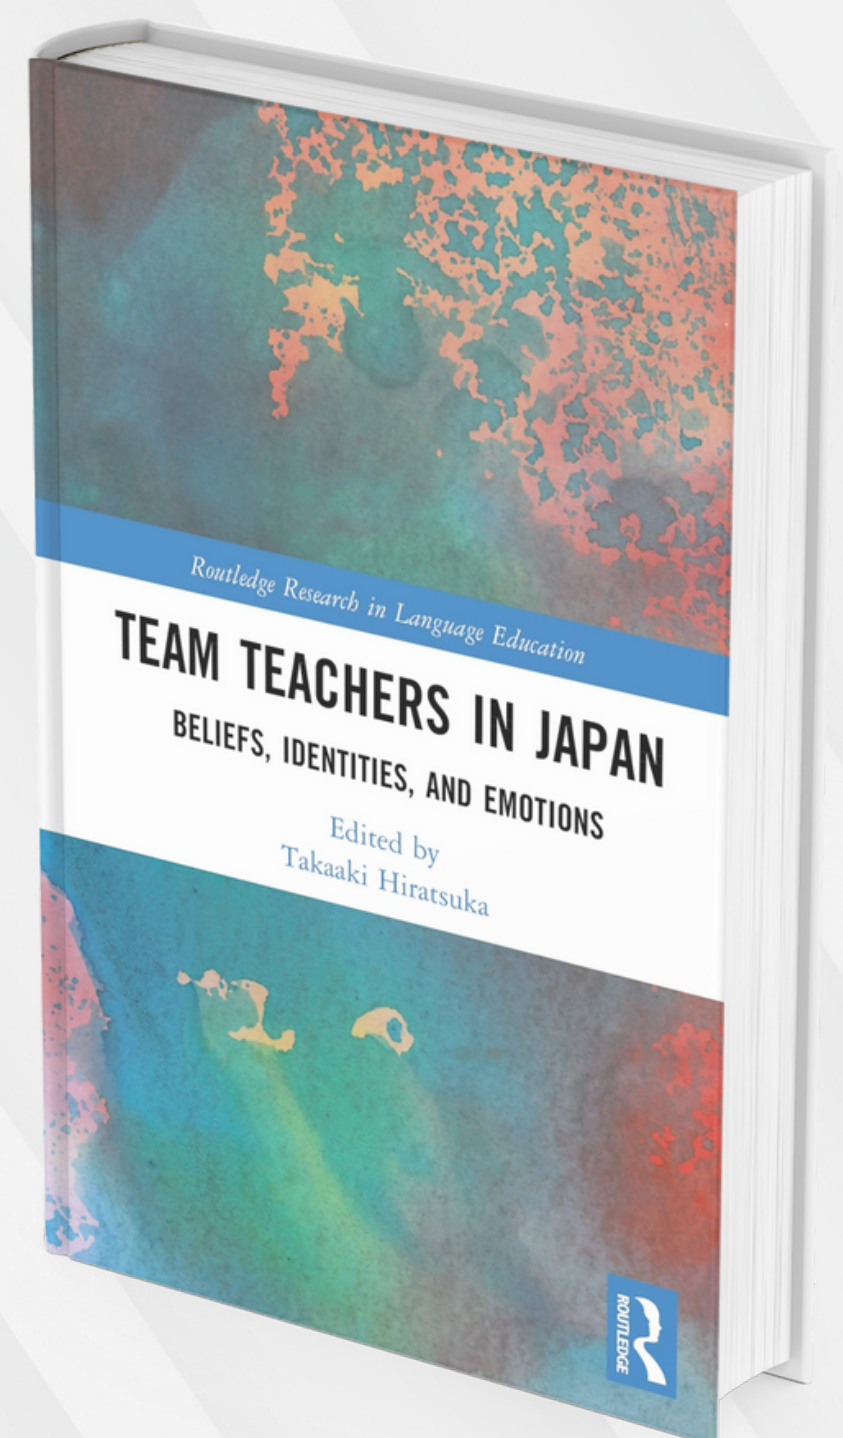

- 6:30pm - Presentation by editors and chapter contributors
- 7:15pm - Q&A session
- 7:45pm - Social Breakout Rooms including;
 1. Chat with the author
 2. Chat with chapter contributors

Registration Link:

bit.ly/3q9Apuq

Scan to register

This is a Free Event supported by Routledge, Osaka JALT, JALT Team-Teaching WG, and Ryukoku University. Registration are required for this event.

Takaaki Hiratsuka is a Professor of Applied Linguistics at Ryukoku University in Kyoto, Japan.

He currently supervises master's and PhD students in related field of language teacher education and narrative inquiry. He is also the Chair of JALT 2023 International Conference. His recent book publications are: Narrative inquiry into language teacher identity: ALTs in the JET program (2022, Routledge) and Team Teachers in Japan: Beliefs, identities, and emotions (2023, Routledge).